I, Matthew Gordon SMITH BA, declare under penalty of perjury that I understand the German language and the English language; that I am conversant with the German and English languages and that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, the English language text in the attached translation of German Patent Application No. 102 45 272.5, including the description, claims and abstract, have the same meanings as the German language text in the original document, a copy of which I have examined.

Signature:
